

Illinois Association of REALTORS® Pre-License Home Study Course

The the Illinois Association of REALTORS® Licensing & Training Center presents a 45-hour self-study pre-license course. Self-study offers flexibility on your own time in your home or office.

The Course

The Real Estate Transactions Course, or pre-license course, is the mandatory basic course for all salespersons. Successful completion fulfills the Illinois 45-hour pre-licensing education requirement.

This course covers all factors involved in real estate transactions: finance, real property law, property, listing, agreements, taxes, legal descriptions, Illinois License Law and ethics.

Student material, consisting of self-study book, cassette tape and course outline are designed to guide you through the complete program.

Study Help

For your convenience, a state-approved instructor is available by phone or e-mail to answer any questions that may arise on course materials.

Final Exams

The State of Illinois requires a proctored exam for each course. Students may take the proctored exams at the local board of their choice.

After completing the course, the student should contact IAR at 217/529-2600 to have the exam sent to that location.

Tuition

The pre-license home study course is $299. The price includes tax and shipping.

Order Information

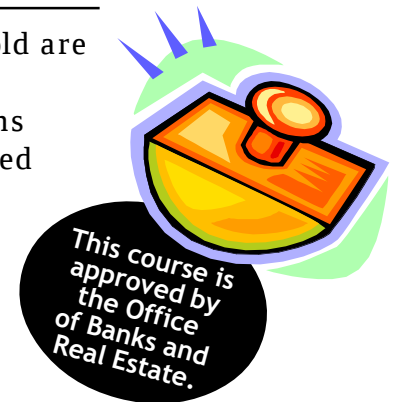

To order, simply complete the form on the back and fax or mail to IAR.

Classroom Study

The Licensing and Training Center also offers pre-licensing classes at a number of locations in Illinois. To obtain a list, visit www.illinoisrealtor.org or call 217/529-2600 for a list of available courses in your area.

Requirements for Licensing

Salespersons at least 21 years old are required to have successfully completed a 45-hour transactions course, be sponsored by a licensed broker, have passed the state exam and be a high school graduate or equivalent (G.E.D.).

Licensing Information

Inquiries regarding a real estate license exam can be directed to the Office of Banks and Real Estate, Real Estate Division: 217/782-3414.